FREE Small Business Procurement Workshop

Presented by the State of Indiana in cooperation with the U.S. Small Business Administration

Wednesday, June 14, 2006

8:00 a.m. – 12:00 Noon

Indiana Convention Center – Indianapolis

WHAT?

This half-day immersion program is designed to help start-ups and growing small businesses begin or expand doing business with government agencies and large corporations in every industry.

Experts from the U.S. Small Business Administration, SCORE, SBDC, Federal, state and local government agencies and major corporations like Lockheed Martin, HP and FedEx will present an intensive, interactive group training session. In addition, Indiana's Governor Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr. is scheduled to keynote the event.

TOPICS:

- Strategies for accessing government and private sector prime and subcontracting opportunities
- Getting registered in CCR to do business with government agencies
- Insights on free and necessary resources accessible from the SBA, SCORE, and SBDC
- An introduction to and priority registration in the Business Matchmaking Online Network
- Effective marketing and sales approaches
